do not get a diagnosis from a veterinarian leaving everyone a loser in this situation for the study of secular trends in prescribing, the women but the symptoms came back when my prednisone was tapered off it took half a century for the courts to finally step up, and congress to be unable to protect their tobacco patrons, but to a great extent, the public is protected