the crystals formed when you have pseudogout aren't uric acid crystals — they are made of a calcium salt called calcium pyrophosphate.